

SPEAKER BIOS

Zubair Khan is the Executive Director of the Media Business Authority which he has worked with for the past 22 years. He also has 40 years of experience in retail via his ownership of an Oriental Rug Business. He believes in the importance of personal relationships and partnerships, and playing off of the strengths of the community. He has won awards from the State, County, and the Department of Commerce for his economic development projects.

Susan Williams is Vice President of Product Delivery for TD Bank focusing on delivery of large scale strategic initiatives for the US consumer bank. In her free time, Susan holds a seat on the board of the Lansdowne Economic Development Corporation. She is chair of the Lansdowne Arts on the Avenue Festival board, and is also a former Lansdowne Borough Council person. While holding the office of Council person, she chaired the Council's Economic Development Committee and held a seat on both the Community Relations and Infrastructure Committees.

Todd Bressi is Coordinator of Artistic Planning for the Mural Arts Program in Philadelphia. He spearheads projects in a variety of sizes, from large-scale, artist-led, integrated urban spaces with budgets of millions of dollars, to temporary exhibitions of technology-based interactive artworks, to singular artworks that become community icons: all using public art and artist-led creative placemaking. He works with developers to include public art components in new construction, with private artists who are contracted to for their skills, with the public to enhance their neighborhoods, and with city officials.

