Location: Government Center Building, Media, PA

Openings: 2 Vacancies – One Business Member, One Workforce Development Member

Closing Date: November 20, 2026

Summary:

The Delaware County Workforce Development Board is a business-led board that works in partnership with County Council. Its goal is to ensure that Delaware County has a dynamic and high-quality workforce.

The Board was established through the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act and is authorized to establish goals for workforce programs in its local community. The Board provides leadership on critical workforce issues identified in the Local Strategic Plan and engages the community to deliberate on key workforce and economic development issues. In addition, it oversees programs and services to ensure high quality performance.

The Board is comprised of volunteer leaders from private business, organized labor, education, economic development, human services, and community-based organizations, all of whom are appointed by County Council to terms of three years. The majority of the Board must be owners, chief executive officers, chief operating officers or other individuals with policy making or hiring authority in the private sector. Board members must sign a conflict-of-interest statement and statement of financial interest form prior to appointment and annually during membership.

The Board meets quarterly. Meetings are open to the public.

Term: January 1, 2027, to December 31, 2029
